

achievements

2005 (updated March)

- CMAA Australian CM Achiever Awards Finalist for Independent Entertainer of the Year.
- Joined Channel Seven's travel program Sydney Weekender as a presenter.
- TIARA Awards Winner for Female Vocal (Turn Out The Light).
- ACMLA People Choice Awards Winner for Best Female Vocalist (Turn Out The Light).

- VIC & National Country Music Awards Winner for Duo (Dear Someone).
- Golden Guitar Finalist for Female Vocal (Turn Out The Light) at the Country Music Awards of Australia Country Music Awards of Australia.
- Golden Guitar Finalist for Vocal Collaboration (Dear Someone & I Dream Of Highways – 2 noms) at the Country Music Awards of Australia.
- TIARA Awards Finalist for Vocal Collaboration (Dear Someone).
- ACMLA People's Choice Awards Finalist for Best Country Album (Turn Out The Light).
- VIC & National Country Music Awards Finalist for Female Vocal (Turn Out The Light).
- VIC & National Country Music Awards Finalist for Smokey Dawson Best Independent Release (Turn Out The Light).
- VIC & National Country Music Awards Finalist for Song Of The Year (Turn Out The Light).
- VIC & National Country Music Awards Finalist for Bluegrass & Traditional Country (Dear Someone).
- Golden Guitar Top 10 Finalist for Vocal Collaboration (Where Do We Go From Here) at the Country Music Awards of Australia.

2004

- Australian Independent Country Music Awards Winner for Female Vocalist Of The Year
- Musicoz Awards Finalist for Country Artist Of The Year
- ACE (Australian Club Entertainment) Award Finalist for Country Female Performer Of The Year
- The face & ambassador of the Heart Of Country NSW tourism campaign
- CMAA Australian CM Achiever Awards Finalist for Independent Entertainer of the Year
- Australian Independent Country Music Awards Finalist for APRA/AMCOS Single Of The Year
- Australian Country Music Achiever Awards Finalist for Independent Entertainer Of The Year
- Turn Out The Light a finalist in the Best Cover Art Of The Year category of the Australian Country Music Achiever Awards
- Mo Award Finalist for Female Country Performer Of The Year
- Invited to perform on the documentary 'Lights On The Hill: A Musical Tribute To Slim Dusty' - ABC TV
- Presenter at the Country Music Awards of Australia. Channel Seven
- Invited to perform at the 'Tribute For Slim Dusty' Concert, Tamworth
- Released new EP 'Turn Out The Light' independently

2003

- Co-host at the Country Music Awards of Australia. Channel Seven
- Mo Award Finalist for Female Country Performer Of The Year
- ACE (Australian Club Entertainment) Award Finalist for Female Country Performer Of The Year.
- Recipient of a Centenary Medal awarded from the Prime Minister & Federal Government for contribution to Australian society through country music. The awards mark the achievements of a broad cross-section of the Australian community.

2002

- Played the St Louis Steel Guitar Convention with 'The Feral Swing Katz'
- Mo Award Finalist for Female Country Performer Of The Year
- Golden Guitar Finalist for Female Vocal (Planet of Love) at the Country Music Awards of Australia
- Golden Guitar Finalist for Album Of The Year (New Shadow) at the Country Music Awards of Australia
- Presenter at the Country Music Awards of Australia. Channel Seven
- ACE (Australian Club Entertainment) Award Finalist for Female Country Performer Of The Year

achievements

2001

- Number one single "Planet of Love".
- Golden Guitar Winner for Vocal Collaboration with Darren Coggan, Beccy Cole & Adam Harvey, Country Music Awards of Australia.
- Inducted into 'Hands Of Fame', Tamworth.
- Mo Award Finalist for Female Country Performer Of The Year.
- ACE (Australian Club Entertainment) Award Finalist for Female Country Performer Of The Year.

2000

- Golden Guitar Finalist for Female Vocal at the Country Music Awards of Australia
- Mo Award Finalist for Female Country Performer Of The Year
- Released single "Amazing" through EMI Music
- ACE (Australian Club Entertainment) Award Winner for Female Country Performer Of The Year
- Released single "Do I Ever Cross Your Mind" with Darren Coggan, Beccy Cole & Adam Harvey through ABC/EMI

1999

- Mo Award Finalist for Female Country Performer Of The Year
- ACE (Australian Club Entertainment) Award Winner for Female Country Performer Of The Year
- Co Host & performer at Wesley Mission's "An Australian Christmas", Darling Harbour. Televised Channel Ten

1998

- Recipient of the Noel McGrugan Memorial Scholarship, awarded from the Sport & Tourism Foundation
- Inducted into the 'Women's Hall Of Fame', Tamworth, for services to country music
- Recorded "Camooweal", a duet with Ed Kuepper - available on the Slim Dusty tribute album "Not So Dusty" through EMI Music
- Presenter at the Country Music Awards of Australia
- Golden Guitar Finalist for Vocal Collaboration at the Country Music Awards of Australia with Clint Beattie for 'Early Hours (Step By Step)
- Mo Award Winner for Female Country Performer of The Year
- ACE (Australian Club Entertainment) Award Winner for Female Country Performer Of The Year
- Co Host "Sale Of The Century", Channel Nine.

1997

- Co Host for lifestyle television program "Our Country" - Prime Network

1996

- Golden Guitar Finalist for Female Vocal at the Country Music Awards of Australia
- Mo Award Winner for Female Country Performer Of The Year
- Co Host ABC Landline of Gympie Muster broadcast - ABC TV
- Compered the Schools Spectacular, Sydney Entertainment Centre. Televised Channel Ten

1995

- Performed at the Sydney Domain for the beatification of Mary MacKillop for the Papal Tour
- Mo Award Finalist for Female Country Performer

1994

- Mo Award Finalist for Best New Talent - The Johnny O'Keefe Encouragement Award

1993

- Golden Guitar Finalist for New Talent at the Country Music Awards of Australia
- Graduated from the Talent Development Project